

For subscribers to a Music Supply Service
Understanding Your Schedule B

1 When you subscribe to a Music Supply Service, it is important to understand that you do not own the CDs – you are renting them. The CDs are still the property of the Music Supply Service and you do not have the right to copy, sell, rent, give away or lend these CDs. If you copy, sell, rent, give away or lend these CDs, your subscriber agreement will be terminated and you will have to return all CDs, at your expense, to the Music Supply Service.

2 The sound recordings on a Music Supply Service CD are owned by the record companies. You may only keep the CDs as long as the Music Supply Service is licensed by AVLA. If the Music Supply Service is no longer licensed by AVLA, you will receive a written notice and must return all the CDs you have rented to the Music Supply Service or to AVLA.

3 Each CD you rent from a Music Supply Service will have its own unique serial number and the AVLA warning on the CD and on the packaging as follows:

“For restricted use only. Subject to Recall. NOT FOR SALE. Reproduction of this [CD, cartridge, cassette or other contrivance] is strictly prohibited. *Sound Recordings licensed by AVLA are the property of copyright owners, all rights reserved. This [CD, cartridge, cassette or other contrivance] may contain a forensic identification that identifies the [CD, cartridge, cassette or other contrivance] and enables the tracking of any copies made or further distribution of this [CD, cartridge, cassette or other contrivance]”. If you purchased this [compact disc, cartridge, cassette or other contrivance] call 1-800-668-8820.”
