AVLA Audio - Video Licensing Agency Inc.

AVLA is a collective society that administers licensing in Canada for owners and exclusive holders of copyright in audio and music video recordings.

If your recording receives radio play in Canada or your music video plays on a Canadian television broadcast such as MuchMusic, MusiquePlus or CMT, AVLA will collect any royalties on your behalf and forward a payment to you minus an administration fee of 10%.

AVLA also administers ISRC's through our website www.avla.ca

How to Join?

Applications available on our website www.avla.ca

AVLA collects royalties for:

- use of music videos in Canadian TV broadcasts
- use by background music services
- use by an airline for inflight play
- use in TV commercials for radio stations
- use by video pools
- private copying
- neighbouring rights*

Neighbouring Rights allows performers and makers of eligible sound recordings to be paid for the broadcast and public performance of their sound recordings.
